Svastika s konjskimi glavami

Gre za enega najbolj ljubkih halštatskih izdelkov, najdenih v gomili na Magdalenski gori, izdelanih med 5. in 4. stoletjem pred našim štetjem.

Ta svinčena okrasna ploščica je bila verjetno del konjske opreme.

Izdelana je v stilu, značilnem za vzhodna ljudstva, predvsem za Skite. Original hranijo v muzeju v ZDA.

Svastika je osnova za lik konjička v grosupeljskem grbu.

Swastika with horse heads

This is one of the most charming products from the Hallstatt period, made between 5th and 4th centuries BC.

It was found in the mound on Magdalenska Mountain.

This leaden ornamental plate has probably been a part of a horse trapping.

It is made in distinctive eastern style, common most of all to the Scythian people. The original is kept in a museum in the USA.

The swastika is the base for a small horse figure in the Grosuplje coat-of-arms.
